

General Terms and Conditions / Cancellation Policy

1. Registration

Registrations are only accepted if the online registration form has been successfully submitted. No registration form is accepted unless accompanied by full payment.

2. Security

When registering through the internet your personal and payment details are secured and encrypted. The latest encrypting techniques available are used for data transfer.

3. Confirmation / Payment obligation

As soon as you have finished your personal registration process for the IUGA International Symposium: New Frontiers in Pelvic Health by clicking the "Register Now" button, you enter into a binding agreement with the organization of this course. As a result, you accept the payment obligation and the term of payment that comes along with this agreement. Your registration will be confirmed by e-mail, giving you an overview of the personal details as filled in by you during the registration process. Furthermore, if you select to pay your registration fee by bank transfer or check, you will receive your invoice attached to your confirmation e-mail. In case you fail to meet the term of payment that is applicable to your registration category (early fee or late fee), the organization is entitled to raise your registration fee to the next category (from early fee to regular fee or from regular fee to last-minute fee). In case the organization has not received your payment before the start of the course, entry to the course may be refused without your payment obligation being waived.
